INTOUCH

The heavens declare the glory of God;
the skies proclaim the work of his hands.

Day after day they put forth speech;
night after night they reveal knowledge.

They have no speech, they use no words;
no sound is heard from them.

Yet their voice goes out into all the earth,
their words the ends of the world.

– Psalm 19 1–4 NIV

November 2026

Dear Friends

How do we find Peace?

When we are anxious about things and fearing for people, ourselves, our world?

I drive to Wales to be in the countryside, to look through the rain to the river, hills, mountains and sheep (there are plenty of sheep). To walk the paths and lanes and get excited by the abundance of Red Kites, the occasional hawk and plentiful corvids. The wonders and variety of life which surround us, but often fail to see, calms my spirit.

On my last visit, there had been rain and an overcast sky most of the time – but something made me look up and that evening I saw the wonders of the universe lit up above my head! The Milky Way (galaxy – not the chocolate) was clear, stars and planets shone…. and I was lost in the experience of being a part of God's creation. It was awesome! Just looking and participating in the universe – something of God in the heavens glimpsed on Earth. Here was peace; here was place; here was purpose… We all have worth with God!

As David acknowledged in Psalm 8:3-5,9:

When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place, what is humanity that you are mindful of them, human beings that you care for them? You have made them a little lower than the angels and crowned them with glory and honour… LORD, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth!

When we are troubled, anxious or hurt – God came to be alongside us through Jesus, who said "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me…" and "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid." (John 14:1,26)

May God's presence and love bring peace

From the Editor....

Hello all

Jem talks about the wonders of the universe lit up above his head and being lost in the experience of being a part of God's creation. I personally usually experience this when I look at the sea. However, I was recently blessed with a trip to Paris. On arrival at our hotel, I was surprised to find we were to take the lift to the 8th floor and then use the stairs to the 9th. On opening the hotel room door, we were met with an awesome panoramic view of Paris.

As usual, Melanie had discovered my plan for a surprise break and had consulted me about accommodation (possibly whilst I was watching TV or even in the shower!) So, the balcony view and room were startling. The spectacular view from the balcony and floor-to-ceiling windows was across rooftops, church domes, spires, railway stations, offices. It occurred to me that together these contained possibly hundreds of thousands of people of varied cultures, faiths and backgrounds.

Reminded that the earth is the Lord's and everything it contains is the Lord's; the world and all who live in it are his, I realised afresh all that God cares for and that, even though my concerns are but a speck in the grand scheme, God cares for me and for those I could 'see' from the balcony. How amazing is that?

So, whether it is the stars at night, my favourite - the sea, the 'man-made' city, or another view entirely which brings you back to God's presence, may you too know the peace of God, which says Do not let your hearts be troubled…

God bless

Richard

Please put this date in your diary!

Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of service, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who empowers them all in everyone. (1 Corinthians 12:4-6) any

This month, let us celebrate and give thanks for all the wonderful things happening and for all each of us does to make our church the place it is…

Can you add to our list, or would you like to join in?

There is always a way to use your gifts and talents to serve the Lord in this place!

Appeal for readers

For various reasons I have lost seven members from my readers' list. So, if anyone would be prepared to help by reading – particularly for the evening services – would you please get in touch with me (01384 838863). Please think prayerfully about this simple but important task.

Core Bible November 2026

We meet at 7.30 pm on Monday evenings in the worship space. We are always glad to welcome new faces. This group is for everyone - whether you read the Bible daily and can quote multiple verses, or if you pick the Bible up rarely and are not sure what the names of all the books are! During November, we are exploring the Letters of John and are delighted that Bob Allaway, Martin and Carol Rider will be leading us before we begin our Advent study 'They Sang' on November 23rd, which explores the four sudden spirit-filled songs from the heart found in the Nativity story. Why not come along? We would love to see the group grow.

Date	Reading	Title
Nov 2nd	1 John 1:1 - 3:3
Nov 9th	1 John 3:4 – 5:21
Nov 16th	2 and 3 John
Nov 23rd	Luke 1:26-56	Magnificat – A song of Justice (preparation – bring clippings or articles from news stories which touch or concern you)

Advent is a time of preparation for the celebration of the coming and promised return of Jesus Christ, God with us.
How will you prepare?
Could time with others seeking to explore what Christ's coming means for us today bring a new dimension to your Christmas celebrations?
Then why not come along and give God a chance to do something new for you? We would be so pleased to see you!!

ECO CHURCH
AN A ROCHA UK PROJECT

In November 2025, the National Emergency Briefing brought together leading experts to present the latest evidence on the climate and nature crisis to politicians and other influential people in Westminster. In August of this year, as part of our Super Sunday worship service, we showed the film that was made using footage from the briefing. We encouraged the congregation to answer some questions as they listened to what was being said.

Below are the questions with the responses.

What made you gasp?

The comment about harsh winters and hot summers.
That the government isn't doing more about this.
The speed at which it is happening.
The talk about the "tipping point."
The recent fires in Stourbridge.
The recent flooding in Nepal.
Are we trying hard enough?
The lack of water.
Everything.
Most of it.

Great is thy faithfulness, O God my Father

What did you discover for the first time?

The resilience of people who have lost everything.
How dramatic the Atlantic tipping point would be.
Not enough equipment for extreme situations.
Crop failures and the risk to food security.
That it's happening here …. and rapidly.
The rapid increase in Co2 emissions.
Everything is inter-linked.
Just how bad things are!

What do you feel about what you have just seen/heard?

How is it going to affect children and grandchildren?
Government should be acting and not just talking.
Change to what we know of British seasons.
Everyone needs to address it urgently.
Need to plan for the future.
Frightened.
Depressing.
Concerning.
Horrified.
Worried.
Scared.

Give thanks to the Lord, our God and King.
His love endures forever.

What are you going to do?

Consider electric cars and solar panels and heat pumps.
Pray that those in power will lead in the right direction.
Not waste food – consider what we are eating.
Start standing up about climate change.
Encourage others as we do our bit.
Take personal responsibility
Minimise use of fossil fuel.
Meat free two days.
Use less water.
Give up flying.
Recycle more.

We should never be discouraged. Take it to the Lord in prayer.

Who needs to see this / who can you tell?

Children need to be educated through the National Curriculum.
Action is needed by all people regardless of age or position.
Action is needed especially by those who have the power to change things.
Everybody.
Worldwide.
Families.
Friends.
Who doesn't need to see it?

You shall go out with joy
And be led forth with peace.
And the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you.
There'll be shouts of joy
And the trees of the field shall clap, shall clap their hands.

Thank you to all those who came to the service and to the screening of the film in July. As an Eco church we will seek ways to move forward together to protect all of creation and be good stewards of this beautiful world.

This message was received from two of our members after the service:

The service this morning was one of the most thought provoking we have ever been to.
A big jolt to those who have their "heads in the sand"!
Beautifully presented,
Thank you.

Second and Fourth Saturday Prayers
November 14th and 28th

Come and join us as we pray for individuals, our church and circuit, the community we serve and situations across the world. You can also join by participating in the Prayer Chain, which receives requests via WhatsApp or email. If you or someone you know needs prayer, please send requests to Melanie via the contact details on the last page.

In November, we mark Remembrance Sunday. As you gaze at the peaceful scene above or dwell on the words of the prayer below, thank God for the peace we know, and pray for those places in the world where peace is a distant dream.

Lord, we give you thanks for the gift of tears
For tears of grief, redeeming our mourning from despair;
For tears of anger, awakening our thirst for justice;
For tears of laughter, celebrating our joy in living.

May the light of Christ shining through our tears
Become the rainbow of your promise,
Shedding colours of your love's bright presence
In your grieving, struggling, laughing world.

Feed My Sheep Harvest Lunch

I always really enjoy coming to church, but the Harvest Festival was particularly special. It wasn't just seeing and speaking to family and the friends I have made - Colin, Paula, Margaret and Debbie come to mind; but there was more - it was seeing the Squirrels, Beavers and Cubs. I used to be a Brownie Leader, and so this really took me back to those days and brought back happy memories. The service was very special.

One of the things I most enjoy about Feed My Sheep is doing the quizzes each month with David and Francis, but this time it was made extra special as Liam played through favourite Harvest tunes on the piano, and we were celebrating not just Harvest but Rosemarie's birthday (see picture) and a special wedding anniversary for Lyn and Ian Andrews (what a delicious treat their cake was!)

The food is always very nice, enjoyable, delicious and satisfying. We definitely eat too much, but this time the spicy tomato and wonderful vegetable soup that tickled my taste buds ….. had there been any left, I would have tried the Leek and Potato! The desserts are always wonderful, second to none and as good as you would get anywhere, if not better. It is hard work, I'm sure, but the hands are willing, and for someone who cannot go out independently and all too often eats alone, it is the highlight of the month. Thank you all.

Gladys Walters

The next Feed My Sheep lunches will be on Sundays 1st November and 7th December at 1.00 pm.

Please contact Megan if you wish to attend – 07904 502365 megan@ashfam.co.uk

……. from Christian Aid

A letter of thanks has been received from Christian Aid in response to the church's gift of £50. Together with 14 other charities that make up the DEC (Disasters and Emergency Committee) they are launching a worldwide appeal to meet the escalating needs of people fighting for their very survival.

Thank you for bringing hope to the people of Venezuela. We pray for their comfort and protection.

……. from Bob Drake

Bob wishes to say a very big thank you for the many phone calls and messages he received during his recent illness. They were very much appreciated.

……. from Black Country Food Bank

Thank you for continuing to support BCFB – in particular for the gifts donated at our All-Age Harvest Service.

This time of year can bring added pressure for many, as fuel bills rise and the cost of food continues to increase. For some individuals and families, this means difficult decisions about how to afford even the most basic essentials. Support from across the community plays a vital role during the Harvest Festival, with generous donations of food, toiletries and funding helping to make this work possible.

Rainbows Squirrels Brownies

All Age Team in Rainbows, Brownies and Squirrels

In the week before the Harvest Festival service, Melanie and Megan visited the Rainbows, Brownies and Squirrels, and explored why and how we celebrate Harvest.

We used four words to help us:

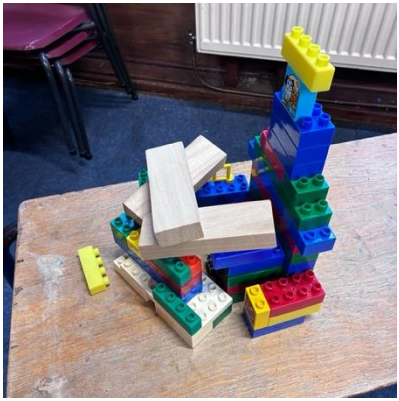

Rejoice: We started the session by rejoicing through song – giving thanks to God for all He has done for us.

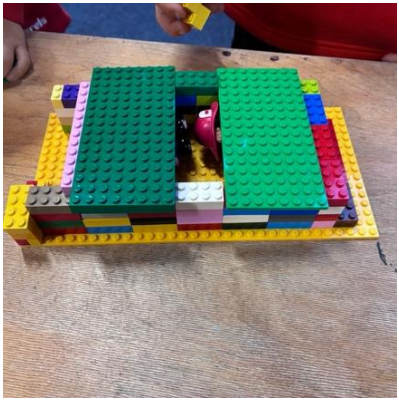

Remember: We heard a reading from the bible which tells the Jewish people how they were to celebrate the Festival of Shelters every year so that their children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, and generations to come would remember how God saved His people from the Egyptians.

Rely: In small groups, the children worked together to build shelters from various types of building blocks. The shelters had to protect the people.

Respond: God promises that we can rely on Him for all that we need. In response, the children wrote or drew prayers on leaves which they added to the prayer tree and which we prayed for in the Harvest service.

These are a few of the wonderful shelters that the children constructed.

This one even has a car on the drive for emergencies!!

Postscript:

Two Squirrels came to the Harvest service and joined in enthusiastically alongside their friends from Beavers, Cubs and Scouts.

We look forward to seeing them all again at the Remembrance service in November.

Christmas Gift Bags - Saltbrook

Buy an Extra Gift

For the last three years we have sent Christmas Gift Bags to the residents of Saltbrook Place.

Saltbrook Place is a scheme in Lye which accommodates up to 66 men and women between the ages of 18 and 70, in temporary accommodation, who might otherwise be homeless. The support workers help the residents to find longer term accommodation and resettle.

The gifts have been much appreciated over the years. For some residents it will be the only present they receive. It is a simple way of us reminding them that they are loved and cared for. It's a way of passing on Jesus' light and hope during the Christmas season.

Each gift bag will contain six items. There are a number of ways you can support this:

- Purchase one or more of the items to be put into the gift bags from the four categories below.

- Give a financial donation to support the buying of the other gift items for the bags.

The four categories of items required are:

1. DRINKS - Tea (40 bag box); coffee (100g jar); hot chocolate (250g); box of cappuccino or latte sachets

2. CHOCOLATE - Chocolate bar (100–120 g); chocolate orange; bag of chocolate e.g. Wispa, Maltesers (95g bag)

3. SWEETS or CRISPS treat - Bag of Haribos (160g); fudge (150g); Werthers (125g); large sharing bag crisps, Pringles, etc.

4. TOILETRIES – deodorant; shower gel; small gift sets (2 items).

We will also include a Christmas card in each bag with a message of love from the Church.

If you would like to buy items, please sign up on the sheets in the Link for as many as you are able.

If you would prefer to give a financial donation, please put this in an envelope labelled "Gift Bags" and give to Debbie Westwood or a Steward.

Please bring the items or donations to church by Sunday 6 December. They will then be combined into the gift bags and dedicated at church on Sunday 13 December.

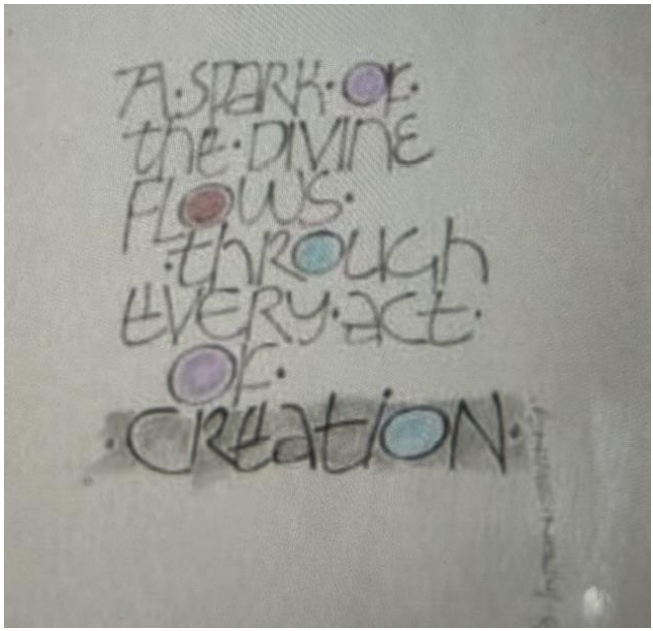

Coffee and Craft

Come with your craft project (or not!) and enjoy a coffee (or tea!) and natter.

Saturdays 7th November & 5th December

10:30 – 12:00

This month we are focusing on paper-crafting and handmade Christmas cards. Paper-crafting includes projects such as making table favours for Feed My Sheep, Christmas crackers, gift boxes and money envelopes. These will be on sale in December to raise money for church funds – keep an open eye!

Some of us have been making Christmas cards, which include a variety of techniques, e.g. stitching, computer printing, mat and layering.

Why not join us
and enjoy a drink, friendship and fellowship?

Local Events - to make you think – Debbie Westwood

If you would like to do something different - and see something to make you think and deepen your faith - you might want to visit these over the coming month:

Dean's Chapel, Worcester - 16 October to 5 November

ENOUGH! (free - but donations welcomed)

Enough! is an installation inspired by the conflicts of Gaza and Ukraine, that invites us to pause, reflect and consider the human cost of conflict.

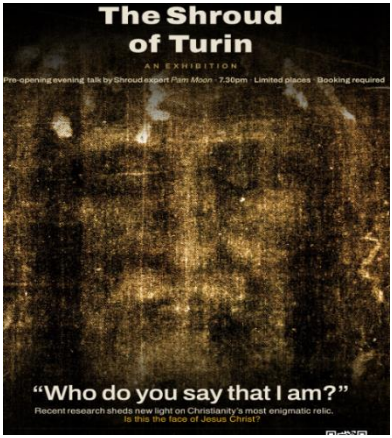

It is designed by Isabel Knowland and features 260 figures representing an estimated 65,000 lives lost.

The installation seeks to help us comprehend the devastating scale of human suffering caused by war. It asks a simple question:

How many lives must be lost before a route to peace is found?

St Leonard's Church, Bridgnorth 26 October to 12 November

11.00 am – 4.00 pm. (free entry - donations welcomed). A full-scale replica of The Shroud of Turin

The touring exhibition has been brought to the town by two local men, Mike Shaw, from the Bridgnorth Baptist Church and Alan Muscat, from St John' Catholic Church, Bridgnorth, both of whom share a long-standing interest in the Shroud. Their aim is to invite people to look, listen and reflect on a subject that has fascinated believers and sceptics for generations.

The church invites us to come and see a full reproduction of the Shroud, which stands roughly 14 feet by 3.5 feet. There are panels tracing its history, the science that has examined it, and the debate that it continues to inspire. Is this the image of Jesus Christ of Nazareth? What do the markings recorded on the fabric appear to show and how does that align with the Gospel accounts of the Passion? Why, after more than a century of examination, does the Shroud still resist a settled explanation? The exhibition doesn't aim to resolve every question but invites us people of faith to use the sense of mystery to deepen their devotion rather than unsettle it. It invites us to stand before the image and just reflect and inquire.

Lichfield Cathedral - 10 October to 23 November

Threads through the Cross (entry by donation)

Lichfield cathedral is delighted to welcome Threads through the Cross, a spectacular large-scale textile exhibition by artist Jacki Parkinson. Telling the story of Jesus's life, death and resurrection through textile art, the exhibition comprises 18 monumental panels, each nearly three metres high. Together, they explore key moments from the events leading up to the crucifixion through to the resurrection and ascension.

Jacqui Parkinson combines silk, paint, metallic leather and gold leaf to create richly textured and highly detailed works, using colour, movement and symbolism to bring these familiar stories vividly to life. The scale of the panels makes for a striking display within Lichfield Cathedral, inviting visitors to take a closer look and reflect on the story from a fresh perspective.

Threads through the Cross offers a unique opportunity to experience the Christian story through contemporary textile art, with powerful imagery and exceptional craftsmanship.

Let's end with a Loff ……

A tale from the M5:

- Do you have a 'fish' (a sign of Christianity) displayed in the back of your car or a text on the rear window? If so, please drive with care.
- A young couple I know were driving down the M5 when they saw a car with WHAT WOULD JESUS DO? on the rear window. Their decision was that He would drive at a constant speed and NOT 'hog' the middle lane!

- How many Ministers does it take to change a light bulb?
  Just one – but several church members to complain how he did it.
- A Minister, known for his lengthy sermons, noticed a man get up and leave in the middle of his message. The man returned just before the conclusion of the service. Afterwards the Minister asked the man where he had gone. "I went to get a haircut" was the reply. "But" said the Minister, "why didn't you do that before the service?" "Because" the man replied, "I didn't need one then!"
- Please place your donation in the envelope along with the deceased person you want remembered.
